

Steve Kelly

Steve and Sharon Kelly are the Senior Pastors of Wave Church in Virginia Beach.

Since taking on the church in 1999 the church has experience rapid growth using a multi-congregational model. Now with multiple congregations across the region, the church continues to expand its influence in the community and across the nation and world.

Because of Steve's leadership Wave Church has seen tremendous growth and thousands have come to salvation.

Steve is passionate about the Cause of Christ, and loves seeing people fulfill their God-given potential. With a blend of wisdom and humor, his practical teachings have helped impact the lives of many - locally, nationally and internationally.

His grasp of and commitment to championing the cause of the local church, along with Wave Church's weekly television program (now broadcast in over 70 nations) have gained this ministry global influence.

Programs that are connected to Wave Church and are the initiative of Steve are: Wave City Care (WCC), Wave Children's Learning Center, Wave Leadership College, Wave Network and Wave Network International, and many others.

Steve is committed to teaching the Gospel message in a relevant way helping individuals and families grow and flourish.
